

Cross-Border Litigation in England and Wales: Brexit Implications

Programme for the 1st June 2018

Venue: Northcote House Council Chamber, University of Exeter, Exeter

9:30 am – 11:00 am – The Current Pilot Study and its Context

Mihail Danov (University of Exeter), Pre-Brexit Data and Post-Brexit Implications - Why do we need to do a pilot study?

Paul Beaumont (University of Aberdeen), The Hague: Recent Developments and Post-Brexit Opportunities

Robert Bray (Former Head of Unit, Committee on Legal Affairs, European Parliament), Legal and Political Challenges concerning an EU/UK Deal

15-minute break

11.15 am – 12.30 pm - Cross-Border Family Disputes: Brexit Challenges and Opportunities

Chair: Rebecca Probert (University of Exeter)

James Netto (Dawson Cornwell), Brexit and Cross-Border Family Litigation: A Legal Practitioner's Perspective

Paul Beaumont and Jayne Holliday (University of Aberdeen), Policy Options for the Future Judicial Cooperation in the Field of Family Law Post-Brexit

Lunch (12.30 pm – 1.30 pm)

1.30 pm – 3.00 pm - Cross-Border Civil and Commercial Disputes: Brexit Challenges and Opportunities

Chair: Paul Beaumont (Aberdeen)

Ardavan Arzandeh (University of Bristol), Brexit and Cross-Border Civil and Commercial Litigation: An Academic Perspective

Mihail Danov (Exeter), Evaluating the Brexit impact – A Game Theoretic Perspective Needed?

15-minute break

3.15 pm – 4.45 pm – Specific Aspects concerning Cross-Border Competition Litigation

Chair: Andrea Lista (University of Exeter)

Jon Lawrence (Brick Court Chambers), Cross-Border Competition Litigation: A Defendant's Perspective

Tim Cowen (Preiskel & Co), A Claimant's Perspective on Competition Litigation

Stephen Dnes (New College of the Humanities), A Global Perspective on Antitrust Enforcement

4.45 pm – 4.50 pm - Mihail Danov (Exeter), Concluding Remarks and Next Steps